Press Release

Save California 2012 Is the Topic for Inland Valley Business Alliance's Meeting Monday, January 10th

RANCHO CUCAMONGA, CA Jan. 6 – Iraq War Veteran, Dr. Paul Chabot, a Navy Reserve Lieutenant Commander and owner of Chabot Strategies, LLC, will address the Inland Valley Business Alliance Monday, January 10th at 11:30 a.m., at Antonino's Ristorante Italiano in Rancho Cucamonga.

Dr. Chabot's topic will be "Save California 2012."
"For far too many years the California dream has vanished. It has become ungovernable, unresponsive, and unsolvable in its current form. Sacramento's politicians are disconnected from our vast land and its people. We are billions of dollars in debt. Our schools are failing. The infrastructure is in despair. Water availability is on the decline and businesses and families are leaving, said Chabot. "Save California 2012 is a citizen based organization looking at real problems with real solutions."

Chabot Strategies, LLC is a national security consulting firm with special emphasis on drug cartels, terror networks, campaigns, media/public relations, and crisis management.

He holds a B.A. in administration from California State University at San Bernardino, a M.A. in public administration from the University of Southern California, and a doctorate (Ed. D) in executive leadership from George Washington University. Paul holds a certificate in legislative studies from Georgetown University and is a graduate and guest lecturer of the
