

Inland Valley Business Alliance November Election Endorsements

Inland Valley Business Alliance Rutherford best choice for 2nd District to insure transparency, accountability, and practical governance.

"We are a regional high profile pro-active business advocacy group that holds elected officials accountable and endorsed Rutherford in the June primary. IVBA believes changes need to be made at the top to clean up the corruption cloud that has kept the County embroiled in litigation the past few years. The millions spent on legal fees could have been spent on job creation," said Norm MacKenzie, President/CEO.
