Press Release

Candidate for Reelection to County Supervisor 2nd District Paul Biane Will Address the Inland Valley Business Alliance Monday, October 25th

RANCHO CUCAMONGA, CA Oct.. 20 – Second District County Supervisor Paul Biane, a candidate for reelection will address the Inland Valley Business Alliance Monday, October 25th at 11:30 a.m., at Antonino's Ristorante Italiano in Rancho Cucamonga.

Supervisor Paul Biane was elected to the Board of Supervisors in November 2002 after eight years as a Rancho Cucamonga City Councilman. He served as Board Chairman between 2006 and 2008 and as Vice Chairman between 2004 and 2006. He has played key roles in expanding economic development and business assistance in the County, and he continues to be a strong advocate of programs that aid local businesses and support job creation.

Prior to his election to the Board, Supervisor Biane worked in the private sector with NAI Capitol Commercial Real Estate Services, where he applied his extensive experience in finance and real estate.

Supervisor Biane grew up in Alta Loma and graduated from Damien High School. He lives in Alta Loma with his wife, Lea, daughter, Bella, and son, Philo.

The Inland Valley Business Alliance is a non-partisan group of business owners from Claremont on the west to Redlands in the east who are taking an active role in current political issues. The group meets for lunch at Antonino's on the second and fourth Mondays at 11:30 A.M. The restaurant is located in the northeast corner of the Thomas Winery Plaza located at the corner of Foothill Blvd., and Vineyard Ave., Rancho Cucamonga. Cost for the luncheon is $15 and reservations can be made on line at www.ivbusiness.org or call 909-989-2232. All businesses along the Foothill corridor and interested residents are welcome to attend.
