The Inland Valley Business Alliance Endorses Rutherford for 2nd District and Wall for 4th District Supervisor

The group believes changes need to be made at the top to clean up the corruption cloud that has kept the County embroiled in litigation the past few years. The millions spent on legal fees could have been spent on job creation.

RANCHO CUCAMONGA, CA, May 28 - West San Bernardino County's voice of business, the Inland Valley Business Alliance, endorsed the below candidates to represent the Inland Valley communities in the June 8 primary election and took positions on the five propositions.
